Strange Discovery Made at House Where "Flapper Spook" Appeared.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., May 4.

-Discovery of a suit of underwear bearing stains that appear to be blood spots, a pair of stockings, part of a shoe and a wreath of flowers from a girl's hat, with a quantity of ashes, beneath the floor of the gnost house at Millerton has given a sinister aspect to a strange case.

The discovery was made when the family of Theron Snyder decided to move because of the disturbances made by the flapper ghost. This ed portion of the floor was again the Snyder home.

While packing up he found a stance taken up from the floor and boards Hudson River State Hospital for in-lifted and then replaced. The saw vestigation.

Barber In Ecstasy Over Shaving Lord Astor

RICHMOND, Va., May 4 .-Rev. Zebulon Farland, local Episcopal clergyman, formerly of Rochester, N. Y., was strolling along West Franklin street, when he met an old colored barber, who for years has specialized in shaving Richmonders in their private homes.

The negro had just emerged from the home of Saunders Hobson, where Lord Astor and party have been staying during their visit to Richmond. He had just shaved Astor and
